Architectural Honors Awarded to Baton Rouge Area Firms

(BATON ROUGE) – American Institute of Architects Baton Rouge presents the 2015 AIA Baton Rouge Rose Award, and the winners are...

American Institute of Architects Baton Rouge had the honor of presenting awards to eight projects completed by seven different firms this year at the 2015 Rose Awards Gala last Friday evening showing great work and development by the Baton Rouge profession. Architects, designers, contractors, project owners, city officials, and developers all gathered Friday evening to showcase the submitted projects and to celebrate the great work being completed in the area. While AIA Baton Rouge members voted for their one favorite out of twenty-three submissions, Mayor Kip Holden honored all by presenting that award to the winner. Corporate sponsors include such companies as 2 C Technology/ILS, Lincoln Builders of Baton Rouge, AOS Interior Environments, Southern Earth Sciences, and many more.

Winners are as follows (project photos also available):

- Members Choice: “Main Library at Goodwood for the EBRP Library System”, The Library Design Collaborative, A Joint Venture
- Gold Rose Awards: “Florida Parishes Agricultural Events Center” by Holly & Smith Architects, APAC
“Creative Bloc”, by Tipton Associates, APAC
“The Pond House at Ten Oaks Farm”, by Holly & Smith Architects, APAC
- Silver Rose Award: “Weinstein Pool House”, DNA Workshop
- Rose Awards: “Fire Training and Administration Complex” by Crump Wilson Architects
“Alliance Safety Council” by Remson Haley Herpin Architects, APAC
“Galloway Residence” by Pistorius Architects, LLC
